EDITORIAL

WASHINGTON, D.C. (AFPS) — In this era of missiles, the Army's oldest installation acquired a new identity, 'White Sands Proving Ground.'

The name change is only symbolic, but it reflects the growth in importance of the site, which is still under the command of Col. Richard C. Craig, chief of the Military Test Station.

Lt. Gen. Jonathan M. Wainwright, Army chief of ordnance, unveiled the new title and gave his personal approval of the project, which has a budget of about $100 million.

Among the guests was William H. Brown, deputy chief of the Science and Technology Division of the Pentagon, who said the change was long overdue.

White Sands was established in 1945 as a proving ground for the Army's missile testing, and its name has been changed three times since.

Monday Is Deadline For Beauty Contest

Proving Ground beauties stepped up this week for the competition for "Miss White Sands of 1957." The beauty contest will pick the new commander's lady, and the grooms in attendance have been invited to vote for their favorites.

The contest will be held on Monday, the 13th, and the winner will be announced later that same day.

Philippine Islands

 assigned the winners a slate of desserts.

The contest is open to all beauty queens of the division who have been appointed by the commander. More than 150 people are expected to attend the contest.

Selection of the winner will be made at a joint luncheon in the Post Theater on the afternoon of April 30, 1957, in the presence of more than 200 guests. The dinner will be attended by more than 500 people.

The bride will be offered a $100 check and a surprise entertainment star.

Newlyweds of the couple. of the commanding officer, Capt. and Mrs. J. C. Parham, will be attended by more than 200 guests from the sidelines.

The wedding will be a civil ceremony in the Post Theater. The ceremony will be attended by the commander, Capt. and Mrs. J. C. Parham, and Col. Gerald C. Condon, military advisor to the Secretary of War.

WSPG's editorial board, under the direction of WSPG's editor, Lt. Col. L. E. O. Ford, has been working on the selection of the winner.

The winner will be selected on the basis of beauty, personality, and charm.

Basketball Predictions

Sports Orderly

By PEN ALLEN LOOPER

The sport of Chamberlains, Thompson and Kraay has reached its second and near the start of the season.

Army basketball fans will expect the playing away of the West Point varsity for the annual tour by S.B. and Hamilton Jan. 11.

The game is being played Tenley in the basketball court of the University of British Columbia.

There is a good prospect of a good game and a good exhibition from this group.

Maryville vs. Lincoln College, New Jersey, in the season's newest cre-

The WING Rockets can almost feel the copper cop of the ball they hit the basket with their hand.

The talent-loaded squad, featuring an enormous number of players, including the 6-8 center, Widdis, former Florida State center, and the 6-3 forward, Turner, features a display of strong shooting.

TOUCHIES — A triumphant climax crosses the fans of Bob Charity, Dick Cost, E. V. B. Aram Gravatt and Alton Smith at the annual tour by S.B. and Hamilton Jan. 11.

TROOP COMMAND WEEKLY

TROOP COMMAND WEEKLY

In case you are wondering why all the activity in the Troop Command, and around the Housing Office and the PX, it's because the Army is inspecting everything, from the kitchen sink to the dining hall, to keep the Troop Command in tip-top condition. The troop inspectors are checking every nook and cranny, and even making sure that the laundry is properly sorted and folded. They are looking for any problems or areas that need improvement. The inspections are part of the Army's commitment to providing a safe and comfortable living environment for all soldiers.

New Mexico, Land of Opportunity, Lies on The Edge of New Frontier

New Mexico, the Land of Opportunity, lies on the edge of the new frontier.

New Mexico is a land of opportunity, with a rich history and diverse culture. From the Sangre de Cristo mountains to the desert plains, New Mexico offers a unique blend of natural beauty and cultural richness.

The state's economy is dependent on its natural resources, including oil and gas, mining, and agriculture. New Mexico is also a leader in the aerospace and defense industries, with a strong focus on research and development.

In recent years, the state has seen growth in the tourism industry, with visitors coming to experience its history, culture, and natural beauty. The state's many national parks and monuments, including the White Sands National Monument, attract visitors from around the world.

New Mexico is also home to a diverse range of people, from Native American tribes to Hispanic and Anglo communities. The state's rich cultural heritage is celebrated through festivals, music, and art.

With its mild climate, abundant opportunities, and rich history, New Mexico is a unique and exciting place to live, work, and play.
